Vacancy: Women's Refuge & Follow on Worker

Hemat Gryffe Women's Aid is seeking to recruit a women's worker to provide support to vulnerable women who have experienced domestic abuse.

Hemat Gryffe Women's Aid supports women, children and young people experiencing domestic abuse, forced marriage and honour-based abuse primarily from the Asian, Black and Minority Ethnic Community.

Experience of working with women and knowledge and understanding of the impact of domestic abuse, forced marriage and honour-based abuse on women primarily from minority ethnic backgrounds is required.

A suitable qualification that meets with Scottish Social Services Council (SSSC) housing support registration is required otherwise training will be provided.

The nature of our work requires a commitment to the feminist analysis of domestic abuse and to the values of Hemat Gryffe Women's Aid. It is essential that you are bilingual and speak English and Hindi, Punjabi, or Urdu.

Completed application forms or Curriculum Vitae (CV) are acceptable (see covering letter for more information)
