Dear Applicant

January 2025

Thank you for your interest in working with us.

Hemat Gryffe Women's Aid was established in 1981 and is Scotland's first feminist organisation providing support primarily to women, children and young people from the Asian, Black and Minority Ethnic Community experiencing domestic abuse, forced marriage and honour-based abuse. Hemat Gryffe Women's Aid is a single sex service provider and areas of service provision include refuge accommodation, follow on support and crisis/outreach services. Women only need apply (under Schedule 9 (Part 1) of the Equality Act 2010).

VACANCY INFORMATION

We have a vacancy for a Women's Domestic Abuse Community Worker to provide support to victims of domestic abuse.

APPLYING FOR THE POST

We will accept a completed application form or Curriculum Vitae (CV) when applying for the post.

Please ensure that all sections of the application form are completed prior to submission. The application pack attached to this letter includes the following:

- Application Form
- Job Description
- Self-Declaration Form
- Equal Opportunity Form
- The organisation Equality Policy, Annual Report and Child Protection and Adult Support & Protection Statement.

If you are submitting a CV, please ensure that it contains a personal statement and information about your personal qualities, values, and any experience relevant to this role.

WHAT WE WANT TO KNOW

Your submitted application form or CV should tell us the following:

- Your experience of providing support to women
- Your knowledge and understanding of domestic abuse, forced marriage and honour-based abuse and impact upon women from minority ethnic backgrounds.
- Why you believe you are suitable for this role.
- How you meet the criteria set out in the person specification.

SUBMISSION OF APPLICATION PAPERWORK

Completed application form or CV should be returned by email to recruitment@hematgryffe.org.uk (preferred) or posted to Private & Confidential FAO Recruitment, Flat 0/1, 24 Willowbank Street, Glasgow, G3 6LZ. The closing date is Monday 3 February 2025 at 5pm.

The Equal Opportunities Monitoring Form should be returned in a separate email marked private and confidential. It will be saved anonymously and kept separately from your application form and will not be seen by any member of the interview panel.

You are welcome to return the Self Declaration Form to us by email. However, there is also the option of returning it to us in a sealed envelope which would only be opened if you are offered and accept the role.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

This post is subject to Adult PVG Scheme check as you will be doing regulated work with protected adults.

You will also be required to provide proof of your qualifications and right to work in the UK if you are offered a position.

The shortlisting and selection process involves an anonymous review of each candidate's application form conducted by the interview panel. The contents of each application form are scored against the post's Essential Requirements and Desirable Requirements which are stated in the Job description, Person Specification.

Any discrepancies observed in the application form will be noted for further exploration at the interview. Additionally, requirements stated in the Job Description, such as specific qualifications, required registrations and length of experience will be scored.

Failure to disclose important information at the application stage may lead to dismissal and referral to the relevant regulator if discovered at a later date.

Due to funding constraints, we will only contact shortlisted applicants, therefore if you do not hear from us, please assume you have not been successful.

If you wish to speak to someone prior to applying for this role please contact Rajni Pandher, Women's Service Manager, on 0141 353 0859.

Thank you for your interest in Hemat Gryffe Women's Aid. We look forward to receiving your completed application.

Yours faithfully
Hemat Gryffe Womens Aid
